

NEW LEAF SUPPORT DOMESTIC ABUSE

Trainee/Volunteer Counsellors

CONTACT

PHONE:
01795 - 608028

WEBSITE:
www.newleafsupport.org

FACEBOOK:
Domestic Abuse – New Leaf
Support

EMAIL:
manager@newleafsupport.org

New Leaf Support Domestic Abuse Service, Sittingbourne, Kent.

Supporting those affected by Domestic Abuse regardless of gender, identity or sexuality.

What is Domestic Abuse? Domestic Abuse is about the Power & Control over another person. This includes Physical Abuse, Emotional Abuse, Sexual Abuse, Psychological Abuse, Financial Abuse, Controlling behaviour and Coercive Control.

New Leaf Support have a trained support team/ IDVA's, for those affected by Domestic Abuse regardless of your gender, identity or sexuality. Looking at safety planning, guidance and support around the effects that Domestic Abuse has on the victims and their families

We are looking for Trainee Counsellors who would like a work placement within New Leaf to complete their 100 hours and volunteer counsellors who would like to support victim/survivors or Domestic Abuse.

New Leaf will provide:

- Support and Supervision with work placement, including reports for college.
- Domestic Abuse training and mandatory training.
- DBS completed.
- Working with a friendly supportive team.
- Gain knowledge around Domestic Abuse.

For more information and to arrange a visit to New Leaf please email: manager@newleafsupport.org

Amanda Walker

CEO – New Leaf Support Domestic Abuse Service.